Getting to Athens

If you are coming to Athens by plane, please arrive at Athens International Airport. Aegean Airlines is Greece's main airline, and is currently connected to 153 destinations in 44 countries.

Coming from the Airport

By car

Athens International Airport is located 33 km southeast of Athens. It is accessible via the Athens ring road (Attiki Odos). The drive to the city centre (Syntagma Square) takes around 30-45 minutes.

By Metro

Metro Line 3 connects the airport to the city centre (Syntagma Square). The journey takes approximately 40 minutes. The metro runs every 30 minutes, 7 days a week from 6:30 to 23:30. One-way tickets cost 9€, return tickets cost 16€.

By Bus

Non-stop 24-hour express buses connect Athens International Airport to the city centre (Syntagma Square) and the Intercity Bus Terminal (KTEL Kifissos). The buses drop off passengers at the Departures Level and depart from the Arrivals Level. Tickets are sold at a ticket booth outside the Arrivals hall (between Exits 4 and 5.) One-way tickets cost 5.50€.

Express bus routes to Athens city centre:

- X93: Airport - Kifissos Station (aprox. 65 minutes)
- X95: Airport - Syntagma Square (aprox. 60 minutes)

By Suburban Railway

The Proastiakos Suburban Railway connects Athens Airport with Larissis Station (the main Athens railway station). It takes approximately 45 minutes. Trains depart from Athens airport every 15-25 minutes to Doukissis Plakentias station, where you can transfer to the Athens Metro network with using the same ticket.

By Taxi

Taxis are available outside Exit 3 of the Arrivals Level. A taxi from the airport to the city centre costs a flat rate of 40€ from 5:00 in the morning to midnight and 55€ from midnight to 5:00.

Getting around Athens

By public transportation

The metro runs daily from 5:00 in the morning to midnight. Lines 2 and 3 operate until 2:00 at night on Fridays and Saturdays. At peak time, trains run every 5-6 minutes.

Buses and trolleys in Athens run daily from 5:00 in the morning to midnight. Find the timetable here.

There are two tram lines, T6 and T7, which connect to the Metro and the overground train at four stops: Syntagma, Syngrou/Fix, Neos Kosmos and SEF (Peace and Friendship Stadium in Faliro). Please find the timetable here.

Tickets for public transport are sold at ticket booths and machines at all stations. It is possible to use all means of public transport with the same ticket for 90 minutes (not including services to/from the airport).

Ticket Prices:

- A standard ticket costs 1.20€.
- A Day Pass valid for unlimited travel (except airport services) for 24 hours costs 4.10€.
- A 5-Day Ticket valid for unlimited travel on all modes of transport (except airport services and bus line X80) for 5 days costs 8.10€.
